SUBMISSION TYPES AND GUIDELINES

Full-Length Submissions

Submissions must be no more than 12 pages, including references, appendices, and a title page. Submissions must follow the submission template specifications. Submissions must be original, previously unpublished, conceptual, or empirical research manuscripts. Papers that the reviewers highly rate will be workshopped for submission to a supporting journal. The paper that best represents, in terms of quality and suitability, the theme and ideals of the conference will be awarded the "Best Paper Award" during the conference.

Research-in-Progress Submissions

Submissions must be no more than 7 pages. Submissions must follow the submission template specifications.

Teaching Cases

We welcome submissions of teaching cases. The cases should be based on real situations and targeted at specific learning objectives. Cases should be no more than 12 pages and must be accompanied by instructor teaching notes (not included in the 12 pages). The teaching notes will not be published.

Workshop, Panel, and Tutorial Submissions

Submissions must be no more than 3 pages. Proposals should include the objectives, topics to be covered, and the full details of all presenters. The method of presentation is at the submitter's discretion; however, the submitter is responsible for providing their panel members.

IMPORTANT NOTES

1. The language of the conference is English.
2. The number of submissions by an author (including joint authorship) is strictly limited to a maximum of two.
3. The number of authors is limited to five authors per paper.
4. Authors of accepted papers (at least one person per submission) and all panel members and tutorial presenters MUST register AND attend the conference.
5. Submissions of ALL TYPES must be received by the above deadlines.
6. Papers (Full-Length and Research-in-Progress) presented at the conference will be published in the conference proceedings. The proceedings will be ISBN and ISSN registered.
7. Papers presented at the conference will also be placed in the AIS e-Library.
8. Papers not following the formatting rules will be rejected.
